

Individuals looking to start a new business in Fairburn will also find a wealth of resources in the region designed to help them start, manage and grow a successful enterprise. Educational resources abound throughout the Atlanta region, from 2-year community and technical schools to major colleges and universities offering a full range of degree programs, technical and certification training and adult continuing education courses. Fairburn's educational campus, located along its Main Street corridor, houses both Brenau University and Georgia Military College and will soon be expanded to include a state-of-the-art Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) academy, operated by the Fulton County Schools. In addition to its public schools, Fairburn has a top-rated private school. Landmark Christian School offers K4 – 12 instruction, attracting students from throughout the region. Education and training opportunities within the City and throughout the region provide employers with the resources to help them build and maintain a highly skilled and knowledgeable workforce.

