CELEBRATING EXCELLENCE

At the March 25th City Council Meeting, Fairburn paused to acknowledge and honor phase one small business grant recipients. These business owners received funding to support their business from the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. Fairburn allocated a total of $350,000 in grants for local small businesses.

IMPORTANT NOTICE WE HAVE MOVED!

The City of Fairburn City Administration, Planning & Zoning Department, Code Enforcement Division, and Finance Department have relocated to the new Administration Building at 314 NW Broad Street, Fairburn, GA 30213. Building permits, inspections, tax payments, and business licenses can be requested at the new location.

2024 Georgia Cities Week is April 21st through April 27th. For more information regarding various events and projects visit www.fairburn.com
