Fairburn Fall Festival!!!

It's almost that time of year again. If you or your organization would like to participate in South Fulton's Premier event, vendor's application for food, arts & crafts and parade participation is available online or can be obtained from the receptionist at Fairburn's City Hall. We are expecting a complete day of fun for the entire family. This year's event has something very special for you. Don't miss it, as we "Fairburn: Situated to Succeed"- October 1.

Civilian Response Class

Fairburn Police Department will host a civilian response to an active shooter event on Tuesday, July 26th at 6PM in Fairburn City Hall, 56 Malone Street. Attendance to this event is free and all are invited to attend.

Utility Department Policy Updates

In an effort to better serve our residents, the Utility Director, Mr. Tom Ridgway, will submit to the City Council revised Utility Department Policy for approval at the July 25th Council Meeting. The revisions will at minimum address the bill payment extension process. If approved, the new policy will take effect in September 2016 to allow residents to make any necessary adjustments.
