

Fairburn, GA - After a distinguished career of 32 years in Fire service, the City of Fairburn's Deputy Chief Jon Fore is retiring. "It was an awesome opportunity to serve the citizens of Coweta County, the citizens of Riverdale and the citizens of Fairburn during my 32 year career. I cherish every minute I was given to serve those people and their families. I am a very simple individual who loved this opportunity. God put me on this planet to serve others...it is in my DNA." Of the values that Chief Fore held close, teamwork and comradery were especially important, with a desire to aid his teammates during their times of need. "I will always have a special place in my heart for all those men and women, I call my family!" Fairburn Fire Department, led by Chief John Reed, Jr., wishes Chief Fore all the best in his retirement.
