City of Fairburn, Dash and the Southside Theatre Guild Presents "Life in Lights"

The City of Fairburn, in partnership with Dash and the Southside Theatre Guild invites the public to "Life in Lights" on Saturday, August 20, 2022 from 6:30PM - 10:30PM at 26 West Campbellton Street, Fairburn, GA 30213.

"Life in Lights" is an outdoor art experience that highlights the 50th Anniversary of the Southside Theatre Guild. This free, one-day public art activation will feature an exhibit by Elise Williams, live music by DJ Santiago Paramo and food vendors.

"This event is an art activation that serves to support local artists, downtown businesses and the community," said Mayor Mario B. Avery. "Our goal is to provide a family-friendly art experience that welcomes creativity and culture for everyone to enjoy."

August 20, 2022 marks the beginning of the 50th season for the Southside Theatre Guild. As a non-profit organization, staffed completely by volunteers, the theatre has played an important role in the arts and cultural development of our community.

"Southside Theatre Guild has not only provided a much needed source of entertainment, but also offers a space for citizens to interact, discuss relevant or challenging topics and participate in a wholesome, inclusive environment where all are welcome", said Janet Reed, Grant and Community Outreach Coordinator for the theatre. "Our goal is to grow and continue to serve as an arts and culture anchor institution for the City of Fairburn and South Fulton County for many more years."

"As this event continues to grow larger and hosts more community artists, it is so important that we have the support and collaboration of Dash and the Southside Theatre Guild to make 'Life in Lights' even more successful," said City Administrator Tony M. Phillips. "We look forward to this art experience as we celebrate Fairburn and the 50th Anniversary of the Southside Theatre Guild."

The public is invited to come stroll through the alley, experience an art exhibit by Elise Williams, dine at local food trucks and restaurants, while enjoying an evening in Fairburn. With live music, the alley will be filled with creative energy.

“Life in Lights is more than an event,” said Parks and Recreation Director Chapin Payne. “It’s an adventure that allows the public to interact with our area artists to discover authentic art, music and food.”
