Are you getting emergency alerts, texts, e-mails, etc.? Do you receive community news announcements? Are you aware of the activities and events in the City of Fairburn? If not, you do not have to worry anymore.

The City of Fairburn Utilities Department is encouraging everyone to go to the City of Fairburn website and sign up via the Notify Me Tab on the feature page.

The Notify Me feature serves as the cornerstone of our citizen communication and engagement strategy throughout the City. This communication tool allows citizens/ local businesses to receive multi-channel notifications that are most important; based on personal preference. Citizens and local businesses have the option to choose which matters to be notified on via email or text message.

Please, don't miss out on 'being in the know'.

Don't miss a beat, go sign-up for "Notify Me"!
If you have any questions, feel free to call the Utilities Department at (770) 969-3481.

MAYOR'S CORNER

Greetings,

The City of Fairburn along with other municipalities have witnessed major tribulation in 2020. From losing one of the world's greatest basketball players, Kobe Bryant, to Congressman John Lewis and Supreme Court Justice, Ruth Ginsburg, and thousands and thousands of lives lost and affected by the deadly Coronavirus disease; this pandemic has really burdened the hearts of people everywhere. Despite the devastating tragedies and heartbreaking diagnosis, we as a nation still have a reason to be thankful. Psalms 30:5 declares, "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning". During this season of thanksgiving, allow a spirit of joy to inundate your mind by capturing precious unique moments with the ones you love the most. Whether it's a virtual holiday dinner, or an extended air hug, these acts of love will create a memorable memory to be cherished from one generation to the next. I encourage every Fairburnnite to arise and be thankful for the many blessings that have been bestowed upon us, even in the midst of this pandemic!

Happy Thanksgiving Fairburn!

Greetings,

Evoline C. West has partnered with Living Word Church Ministries to fill the school's on-site pantry affectionately called the Sunshine Closet. The pantry will help students receive the necessary food and other personal items in a confidential manner throughout the school year and during school breaks. Please support this initiative by dropping off food that is nonperishable, personal hygiene items, and winter clothing at the Drive-Thru Drop-Off kick off on Saturday, November 14th. Please direct any questions to outreach@lwcmin.org.

Regards,

William B. O'Neal, Sr., Pastor
